

Race nights

Race nights come in a variety of formats and for this reason it is not possible to give advice about whether permissions are required.

If you are proposing to organise a race night that will take place after 31 August 2007* we would suggest that you seek advice from your legal adviser or contact the Licensing Section at Vale of Glamorgan Council. However, when seeking advice it may be helpful if you can give consideration to the following:

- Is your race night incidental to some other event?
- In what manner are the races being shown?
- Where are the proceeds going?
- On what sort of premises is the event being held?
- What sort of stakes and prizes are being contemplated?
- Are the odds the same for every runner?

Please bear in mind that you may also require a licence under the Licensing Act 2003 if you are supplying alcohol, food, or entertainment (including showing films)

*If you are intending to organise a race night before 31 August 2007 you may wish to visit the web site of the Department of Culture, Media and Sport, where advice is available.
