Introduction

The National Youth Advocacy Services (NYAS) is a UK charity providing socio-legal services. It offers information, advice, advocacy and legal representation to children and young people aged 0-25, through a network of over 150 advocates, NYAS is also a Community Legal Service.

Service Ethos

NYAS is committed to working towards full implementation of the UN Convention on the Rights of the Child and in particular Article 12 which deals with the right of each young person to be consulted in all matters affecting them.

NYAS seeks to provide and develop its services through the active participation of young people, who are involved at all levels of the organisation.

Who do we offer services to?

NYAS offers independent and confidential information, advice, advocacy and support to young people who want to have their wishes and feelings heard in administrative or judicial proceedings, or in any other circumstances, when decisions are being made about their lives.

NYAS puts children and young people first and offers help to children:-

- In need or despair
- In trouble
- In care or leaving care
- Who are homeless
- With difficulties at school
- Whose parents are separated or divorcing
- Who are simply not being listened to

NYAS offers a young person led service in which young people are given the opportunity to use the knowledge and experience of our advocates and lawyers to inform their own decision making process.
