“MAKING WAVES” PROJECT

At the Governance and Audit Committee meeting on 23rd February, we received a verbal update on the risk management associated with the “Making Waves” project. This project was initially centred on the development of a marina on the docks; a development that was surrounded with much fanfare and PR from this Council, and given the public monies involved, it is surely appropriate to gauge public support. Given ABP’s decision to withdraw from the marina element of the project, does the Council believe it has support from local residents for what is now a much more limited offering and will the Council commit to consulting with residents on their vastly reduced plans that beyond the statutory planning consultations?

QUESTION PURSUANT TO COUNCIL PROCEDURE RULE 8:2

FROM: COUNCILLOR C.M. COWPE

TO: THE CABINET MEMBER FOR NEIGHBOURHOOD AND BUILDING SERVICES

STREET SCENE STRATEGY

The recently announced Street Scene Strategy proposes four dedicated place-based teams for towns and one for large villages to address littering, fly-tipping and environmental improvements, as well as community engagement.

As the urban area of large villages such as Dinas Powys and Rhoose are greater than the smallest town, Cowbridge, how will the Cabinet Member ensure that resources are equitably and effectively distributed across the Vale, based on population and need rather than town status?

FROM: COUNCILLOR C.P. FRANKS

MAINTENANCE OF VALE COUNCIL'S HIGHWAYS

There is huge dissatisfaction about the poor level of maintenance of the Vale Council's highways.

Comments include the delay in repairing potholes, the resulting damage caused to vehicles and inadequate resurfacing.

Will you indicate how you are addressing this dreadful state of affairs?
