THE VALE OF GLAMORGAN COUNCIL

REQUEST FOR THE USE OF EMERGENCY POWERS — CORONAVIRUS PANDEMIC

SUBJECT: Chief Officer Appraisals – Delaying until Autumn or when Covid 19 restrictions cease to apply (whichever is soonest) and to award incremental pay awards in absence of appraisals

2. Reason for Seeking Emergency Powers -

PLEASE SPECIFY BELOW and attach appropriate Committee report / minute/ memo * (* delete as appropriate)

The CMT Gold meeting of Tuesday 31 March was advised that annual increments are payable from 1 April 2020, based on appraisals which are normally carried out in the Spring. This year this is not possible. The Leader and MD had verbally discussed the issue (this is possible as the MD is on a spot salary, and his remuneration is not impacted by appraisal) and come to the conclusion as follows:

- That appraisals would be delayed as above, and would be on a lighter touch reflecting the fact that they are delayed
- That increments would be based on the same pattern as the last year.
 I hose on top of grades would be unaffected and would remain as such and those due increments would be awarded increments, albeit without appraisals given the exceptional circumstances.

The normal delegated powers spreadsheet to approve payments is attached which gives a picture across the organisation.
