2. Reason for Seeking Emergency Powers –

PLEASE SPECIFY BELOW ~~and attach appropriate Committee report /

In response to Covid 19, Welsh Government exercised its power under the 1984 Public Health Act to close all facilities where people gather with immediate effect from the 20th March.

In response to this all libraries in the Vale of Glamorgan, the Art Gallery and face to face adult education classes were closed.

Libraries

There is social media output from all libraries and local networks are also being used to promote digital resources and share useful links on line. New resources are coming on line all the time e.g. Ulibrary, eComics are expanding to include Disney titles and ancestry has allowed us to provide access for users at home through our login accounts.

Get Back on Track and ESOL Courses

- Welsh Government and Cardiff and the Vale College do not intend clawing back grant funding.
- Most learners received homeworking packs from their tutors prior to shut down and our tutors continue to support them on line and through class WhatsApp groups.
- Wellbeing courses set up on line to offer arts and craft to keep learners engaged.
- We are linking with the government ESOL and refugee teams and posting useful links and support/ learning videos on our website.

Learn Welsh in the Vale

- Learn Welsh tutors are using a variety of online programmes to contact and continue to teach Welsh for adults learners, including Skype and Zoom.

- Tutors are maintaining contact with learners who don't have social media or interactive programmes by email and those with no internet by phone and post.
- Tutors are following National Centre for Learning Welsh (NC) guidelines to recommend the national website which is being uploaded daily with resources and tasks for learners to do at home.

Leisure Courses

- It is not possible to deliver the majority of leisure courses on line which will result in a loss of income from customers. The team are working to develop a post COVID 19 programme.
