

Civil Protection Unit (CPU) Update

Debbie Spargo

Principal Civil Protection Officer
Civil Protection Unit

Environment and Housing Services Directorate

The Civil Protection Unit (CPU) is part of the Environment and Housing Services Directorate, based at the Alps, Wenvoe

CPU

- Debbie Spargo, Principal Civil Protection Officer
- Carl Culverwell, Civil Protection Officer
- Melanie Haman, South Wales Local Resilience Forum Coordinator

The Civil Contingencies Act 2004

Assessing the risk of emergencies.

Planning for emergencies.

Planning for business continuity.

Training and exercising with other partners

Responding to emergencies

Cooperation and Sharing

CPU Update

- Humanitarian response
- Covid-19 Inquiry
- Building Security Group
- Martyn's Law

CPU Update

Emergency Plan Review Framework

EP Plans Reviewed:2021/2

- Emergency Fuel Arrangements
- Standard Operating Procedures activating & Opening Emergency Coordination Centre (F26)
- Council Building Access and Egress Protocol
- Barry Chemical Complex External Plan – Control of Major Accident Hazard (COMAH)
- Events Safety Advisory Group Guidance
- Community Flood plan Guidance
- Harbour Protocol
- Internal Sandbag Procedure
- Fuel Shortage Framework
- Community Sandbag Protocol

CPU Update

- Incidents :
  - Continued Covid-19 Response
  - Humanitarian Response
  - Travellers within Vale of Glamorgan
  - Storm Dudley and Eunice Feb 2022
  - Extreme Heat July 2022
  - Industrial Action winter 2022
  - Fuel Shortages 2022
  - Water Incidents Penarth
  - Avian Flu
- Covid-19 Inquiry
- Protective Security Preparedness Groups (PSPG)
- Cardiff & Vale CONTEST Board
- Events Safety Advisory Group (ESAG)

Supporting Strong Communities with a Bright Future

