Foreword

For many years now the recording and protection afforded to the historic environment has been bound within the provisions of a number legislative Acts of Parliament. Indeed, the Vale of Glamorgan has over 100 Scheduled Ancient Monuments, over 700 Listed Buildings and 38 Conservation Areas that are afforded statutory protection by legislation.

However, this system of statutory recognition, by its nature, only takes account of items of exceptional significance. Often there are locally important buildings that although acknowledged not to be of 'national' or 'exceptional' importance, are considered key examples of vernacular architecture or buildings, which have an important local history. It is these buildings which are often the main contributors to local distinctiveness, but which have to date, remained un-surveyed and afforded little recognition or protection.

The original County Treasures project was published by the then South Glamorgan County Council in the late 1970's. It was conceived as a locally adopted inventory of 'special features' in the former County area.

However, as a result of local government restructuring, the changes to local authority boundaries, as well as changes in responsibilities and funding mechanisms the survey was never completed, and as a consequence was not comprehensive in its coverage.

In the three decades that have passed since the original survey was attempted, the loss of a number of local buildings and landmarks, and the redevelopment of unprotected sites make the County Treasures project as relevant today as it was then. This publication is the culmination of the efforts of many individuals and groups who have been generously giving of their knowledge, time and commitment over a nearly ten year period, and without whom the County Treasures project would never have been possible. To all those involved, I extend my heart felt thanks in recognition of a job well done.

We should be proud, therefore, that this version of the County Treasures survey is complete, robust and comprehensive. It is in another respect even more valuable than its predecessor, in that this Inventory has not been compiled by the local authority, but by the communities of the Vale themselves.

Each of the 27 community areas within the Vale were surveyed by a volunteer workforce of local people, teachers, history society members, local Councillors and other interested individuals, who gave willingly and freely of their time to reveal and record the very many items that could conceivably be of architectural and historic interest; and which, further to detailed scrutiny, research and qualification, were considered worthy of inclusion. This inventory, therefore, more than any other provides an account of what is considered of local importance by local people.

The complete Treasures Inventory contains some 1200 entries. It contains a schedule giving the name of each treasure, its description, its current means of statutory protection (where relevant), a grid reference, map and photograph.

This 2007 Inventory should not however be seen as a 'final product', and although it indeed provides an excellent account and record at a fixed point in time, it also provides a framework for future additions and amendments, as more or new buildings become apparent, new information or change occurs.

It is hoped that the Vale of Glamorgan County Treasures Inventory will serve several purposes:

- It will stimulate local, and wider interest, and promote care and maintenance of identified treasures.
- It will act as a valuable educational resource, perhaps allowing local schoolchildren to research locally as well as nationally significant events and buildings.
- It will ensure that treasures are fully regarded in the planning process where they are threatened by development pressures.
- It will stimulate protectionist policies within forthcoming development plans and perhaps the recognition of further areas for statutory designation.

The Vale of Glamorgan Council, Cadw, The Civic Trust for Wales, The Penarth Society, and The Vale Council for Voluntary Services have supported this project.

Every attempt has been made to ensure that this document is as accurate as possible. The survey was undertaken between 2002 and 2007.

Rhagair

Ers llawer o flynyddoedd bellach, mae'r gwaith o gofnodi ac amddiffyn yr amgylchedd hanesyddol yn cael ei reoli o dan amodau nifer o ddeddfau seneddol. Mae dros 100 o Henebion Rhestredig, dros 700 o Adeiladau Rhestredig a 38 o Ardaloedd Cadwraeth ym Mro Morgannwg sy'n cael eu hamddiffyn o dan y gyfraith yn y modd yma.

Serch hynny, mae'n anochel bod system fel hon sydd wedi'i seilio ar gydnabyddiaeth statudol, yn rhoi ystyriaeth i eitemau o bwysigrwydd eithriadol yn unig. Mae hynny'n golygu bod llawer o adeiladau lleol sydd, er nad oes ganddynt unrhyw statws cenedlaethol nac eithriadol, yn dal yn nodedig am eu pensaernïaeth frodorol neu'n bwysig i hanes yr ardal. Yn amlach na pheidio, dyma'r union adeiladau sy'n rhoi cymeriad i ardal er na ddaeth neb i'w hadolygu erioed ac nad oes ganddynt fawr o statws na chynlluniau ar gyfer eu gwarchod.

Hen Gyngor Sir De Morgannwg oedd yn gyfrifol am brosiect gwreiddiol Trysorau'r Sir a gyhoeddiwyd ar ddiwedd y 1970au. Bwriad y prosiect oedd llunio rhestr leol o'r holl nodweddion arbennig rhwng ffiniau'r hen sir.

Serch hynny, bu ad-drefnu llywodraeth leol, newid ffiniau awdurdodau lleol a newid cyfrifoldebau staff a threfniadau nawdd yn rhwystr i'r gwaith, ac am na chafodd yr arolwg ei gwblhau erioed, mae'r rhestr yn bell o fod yn gyflawn.

Yn ystod y tri degawd ers cynnal yr arolwg gwreiddiol, mae nifer o adeiladau a nodweddion lleol amlwg wedi diflannu, a safleoedd diamddiffyn wedi'u datblygu, sy'n golygu bod y prosiect yn fwy perthnasol heddiw nag erioed. Ffrwyth ymdrech nifer o unigolion a grwpiau ymroddgar a fu'n rhoi'n hael o'u hamser a'u gwybodaeth am bron i ddeng mlynedd, yw'r cyhoeddiad hwn. Heb eu cymorth, ni fuasai'n bosibl cynnal prosiect Trysorau'r Sir o gwbl, a hoffwn ddiolch o galon i bawb am ddod i ben â'r gwaith mor dda.

Mae pob rheswm i ni fod yn falch o'r fersiwn cyflawn, cadarn a chynhwysfawr hwn o'r arolwg ar Drysorau'r Sir. Mae'n fwy gwerthfawr fyth na'r un flaenorol hefyd am mai cymunedau'r Fro eu hunain a fu'n ei lunio'n hytrach na'r awdurdod lleol.

Cafodd pob un o'r 27 cymuned yn y Fro ei hadolygu gan dîm gwirfoddol o bobl leol, athrawon, aelodau cymdeithasau hanesyddol, Cyngorwyr lleol a rhai eraill â diddordeb yn y maes. Rhoesant yn hael o'u hamser heb dâl er mwyn dod o hyd i'r holl eitemau a allai fod o ddiddordeb pensaernïol neu hanesyddol, a'u cofnodi. Cafodd y rhai teilwng eu hychwanegu at y rhestr ar ôl llawer o waith ymchwil ac archwilio manwl. Dyma'r rhestr felly sy'n adlewyrchu orau'r eitemau sydd o bwys gan bobl yn eu hardaloedd eu hunain.

Mae 1200 o eitemau i gyd ar y rhestr drysorau gyflawn. Mae pob cofnod yn cynnwys enw'r eitem, disgrifiad ohoni, y ddarpariaeth sydd ar gael o dan y gyfraith ar gyfer ei gwarchod (pan fo hynny'n berthnasol), cyfeirnod grid, map a llun.

Serch hynny, ni ddylid ystyried rhestr 2007 yn rhestr gyflawn o bell ffordd. Er ei bod yn adroddiad ardderchog ar y sefyllfa ar adeg benodol, mae'n bwysig ei gweld hefyd fel fframwaith ar gyfer addasu'r rhestr wrth i'r sefyllfa newid neu i adeiladau neu wybodaeth newydd ddod i'r golwg.

Rydym yn gobeithio y bydd rhestr Trysorau Sir Bro Morgannwg yn:

- ennyn diddordeb y gymuned leol a'r gymuned ehangach yn y trysorau hyn ac yn annog pobl i ofalu amdanynt a'u cadw mewn cyflwr da.
- helpu'n sylweddol gydag addysg plant ysgol drwy roi cyfle iddynt ymchwilio i ddigwyddiadau ac adeiladau sydd o bwys lleol yn ogystal â chenedlaethol.
- sicrhau bod pob ystyriaeth yn cael ei rhoi i'r trysorau wrth gynllunio pan fo perygl i waith datblygu amharu arnynt.
- atgyfnerthu'r polisïau gwarchod yn y cynlluniau datblygu nesaf a helpu i sicrhau bod mwy o ardaloedd yn cael eu dynodi'n statudol.

Mae Cyngor Bro Morgannwg, Cadw, Ymddiriedolaeth Ddinesig Cymru, Cymdeithas Penarth a Chyngor Gwasanaethau Gwirfoddol y Fro i gyd wedi cefnogi'r prosiect hwn..

Gwnaethpwyd pob ymgais i sicrhau bod y ddogfen hon yn fanwl gywir.

Mae pob map yn cael ei ddiogelu gan hawffraint y Goron (H) a chedwir pob hawl. Cyhoeddwyd y ddogfen gan Gyngor Bro Morgannwg o dan Rif Trwyddedu 100023424 2007.

The first historic house at the eastern entry to Boverton. This house appears to originate in the C17 but evidence is now very fragmentary due to its wholesale rebuilding in the mid C19, and the house now has very much the character of that period. It began as possibly two builds of different date which were amalgamated as well as changed in the mid C19.

A medieval circular dovecote, built of roughly coursed limestone with a conical stone roof. Dovecotes were common in most medieval granges and farms, especially in corn growing areas where doves and pigeons helped to scavenge spillages after the harvest. The circular form of the dovecote enabled the maximum number of nesting places to be constructed in the walls and circular platforms were usually constructed to give easy access to collect the eggs.

C13 rectangular, gabled gatehouse with a blocked archway. Originally the entrance to the grange belonging to Tewkesbury Abbey. The gatehouse together with the dovecote are all that remain of a much larger group of domestic buildings on the site. The gatehouse provided the main entry into the farm, the foundations of which were revealed during excavations in 1911-14 and 1937. It was sturdily built over an archway entrance now blocked up. The height of the gable walls above the roofline indicates that the building was once thatched.

Listed Building 11.01.01 13259

OS Grid E 296617

OS Grid N 168720

The largest parish church in the area, it is really two churches linked by a tower. The western church is the older dating from the C12 and was re-roofed in the C15. The Eastern Church dates from the C13. Described by John Wesley as 'The most beautiful and the most spacious church in Wales', the present building almost certainly occupies the site of Illtud's monastery founded in the C5. The Church itself is listed as grade I, whilst the surrounding walls and gates are grade II.

Treasure 577

Monument

Listed Building 11.01.02 13258

OS Grid E 296624

OS Grid N 168701

Splendid restored churchyard Calvary on the South of the churchyard, massive stone steps, slender shaft and decorated head. Original probably destroyed during the two iconoclastic movements in the C16 and C17. The remains of the medieval work comprise the lower part of the shaft and an octagonal stone base with pyramidal stops, both shaft and base mounted on six square stone steps, diminishing in size. The upper shaft and a canopied cross were added in 1919, the cross having been damaged in the C16 or C17 in the reforming zeal of the time. The new sections were designed by G. E. Halliday, the Diocesan architect to a commission from Colonel Frank Gaskell whose son was killed in action in 1916. The head contains on one side a representation of the crucifixion and on the other the figure of St. Illtud.

The house stands on the South edge of the churchyard opposite the Raglan chantry where the priest officiated daily. It was a two-storey building, with one heated room at each level, the upper level also being provided with a garderobe. Chantries were dissolved after 1547. Subsequently the building was most recently used as a smithy. Bombed in 1941, it is now a roofless ruin.

A substantial private dwelling house of the late C16 made up of two units. The house retains much of its fine dressed sandstone detail including doorways. It is not certain when it became an inn because these houses were generally known by the name of the inn keeper rather than any other title. It was in the ownership of the Maddocks family c1650 who issued trade tokens at the time of the Civil War, because of the interruption to the banking system. These tokens can be seen in the National Museum of Wales. The Inn was used as a meeting place for the court leet of the manor of Llantwit which was no longer big enough to merit the use of the Town Hall.

The White House, sometimes known as 'Pip', is a whitewashed three-storey house, pre 1840. Its main block seems to be tall and narrow, an impression enhanced by the symmetrical façade and the positioning of the windows in the gable ends. The façade originally had an iron veranda along its front. This area of the town has always been associated with the Low Countries hence the name Flanders and there is historical evidence for this link. Together with adjacent buildings is said to constitute the Flemish colony of Llantwit as Flemish travellers are reputed to have settled in the area. Recently converted into flats.

Situated on the West side of the triangular space known as the Square this was originally a late sixteenth century end entry house with two units - a hall and inner room. The original lining up of doorway, hearth and mural stair still exists, though the building has been extended to the left. It is a two-storey building with an attic in the dormer gable and is built of white washed rubble, with a slate roof. Exactly when the house became an inn is not known but certainly by the early eighteenth century it was recognised as a tavern. There are stories of judges and courts associated with it. However, any courts held there would probably have been manorial or even Skimmington courts, which were mock trials of scolding wives (tried in their absence of course!)

The old rectory, former presbytery and Llanilltud Fawr County Junior School. Originally known as Knoll Place, the first prominent house in Llantwit Major, acquired by the School Board in 1872 and extended. However, it retains numerous original late medieval features including a gabled three storey stone porch with chamfered four centred arch opening and casements with moulded stone mullions. Other similar original windows.

Medieval. It comprises a small-embanked square enclosure with a circular stone mound in the South West quarter. The mound is un-ditched and may represent a collapsed dovecote. The site lies on the boundary of Llantwit Major and Llanmaes parishes which suggests that the name is derived from Jasper Tudor, Earl of Bedford, who held the moiety of Llanmaes at the end of the C15. Now completely overgrown and no remains visible.

Roman villa situated on Morfa Farm, about three quarters of a mile NW of Llantwit Major Church. It consists of a house and subsidiary buildings around a double courtyard; founded approximately mid second century A.D. Quantities of pottery and coins were found, dating from the mid C2-mid C4. Occupation of the site ended at the close of the C4 although evidence of occasional occupation later exists, e.g. a Dark Ages cemetery and a C12-C13 cooking pot. Discovered by John Storrie 1880, excavated 1888, re-excavated 1938-48 by V. E. Nash Williams, partly re-excavated 1971. Remains covered and revealed only by small mounds. Roman building excavated and burned. Few visible remains.

Promontory hill fort. Partly Iron Age, partly Roman. The camp is a multivallate promontory enclosure on the edge of cliffs, which has been partly destroyed by erosion. The main enclosure is defended by three banks and ditches, and covers about 1.3 hectares. Within this is a smaller single banked enclosure which is probably of an earlier date. No trace of internal inhabitation was found apart from a lower stone of a beehive quern.

Part of a picturesque concept of a 'toy fort' formerly used as a summerhouse, look-out and picnic place on the top of the cliffs. It is built in the middle of the Iron Age cliff castle of Summerhouse Camp and dates probably from the period of 1780-1820. Built of local limestone rubble in the form of a octagonal curtain wall about 2m in height, with corner towers at least one of which on the north side seems to have been a privy.
